30 Seconds To Mars Approaches Platinum Album Status; Watch Their Short Film

The near platinum album A Beautiful Lie by Virgin Records' 30 Seconds To Mars is to be released in a deluxe special package on December 5, 2006. MTV2 and Virgin Records have teamed up to deliver this deluxe package subtitled 'Gravitas' which features a lenticular cover and will contain the original album CD, a bonus MTV2 branded DVD featuring the band's greatest moments on the channel, and as a special thank you, over 5,200 names of fans listed within the fold-out artwork.

In addition, the bonus DVD will include the video for "Attack," as well as the multi-award-winning video "The Kill," a making-the-video feature, and a generous menu of 30 Seconds To Mars television appearances taken over the course of the year.

"The Kill," a #3 Modern Rock airplay hit and the longest running song on the Modern Rock charts of 2006 with an impressive 40+ weeks, was nominated for two MTV Video Music Awards, Best Rock Video and MTV2 Award. It won the MTV2 Award. It also won the mtvU Woodie Award for Best Video (Live Action). Fuse named 30 Seconds To Mars' lead singer Jared Leto "Prince of Darkness," and honored "The Kill" as the Best Video Inspired By Film.

The current single, "From Yesterday" is a top 15 hit on the Modern Rock charts which currently gives 30 Seconds To Mars two songs in the top 15. The short film and video for "From Yesterday" gave 30STM another career milestone by becoming the very first American rock video ever shot in its entirety in the People's Republic of China. It premiered on MTV and MTV2 on November 20th and can be seen on the networks now.

30 Seconds To Mars just wrapped up the MTV2 $2 Bill "Welcome To The Universe" tour in which they headlined. They will next headline the Taste of Chaos tour beginning February 2007.
